

Job offer

Full stack developer (W/M) — Brussel

BetterBusiness is a B Corp, a startup active in the field of sustainable development. Through consultancy services and the development of a digital tool, BetterBusiness targets both SMEs and investors keen on supporting their SMEs in their portfolio.

BetterBusiness's mission is to support SMEs in creating, developing, and implementing a sustainable growth strategy. BetterBusiness also aims to provide investors with an ESG management tool for their SMEs in the portfolio. Our vision is to create synergy between SMEs and their investors to meet the highest ESG standards.

We're seeking ambitious individuals with an entrepreneurial profile, eager to put their energy and talents to work for their career, the team, and its success. Everyone has a significant role to co-create the success of our projects with us.

YOUR PROFILE

You'll join a team of ESG experts and work closely but remotely with our CTO. You're independent, solution-oriented, and enjoy sharing your challenges and successes with your team. You want to lead an ambitious impact project to dedicate your skills, talents, and energy.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- You will assist the technical direction in defining the optimal application architecture (Frontend/API) and identifying areas for refactoring around the sites and interfaces.
- You will act as a technical reference on the technologies you master. In this role, you will support the team's skill development and know how to implement unit and functional tests (frontend/backend) as part of a continuous integration process.
- Functional and technical evolutions of our tools and SaaS (Angular/C#)
- Integration of the platform with third-party APIs
- Technical documentation of the platform and usage procedures
- Test automation

TECHNICAL ENVIRONMENT

- C# / dotnet core 6/7, API Rest
- Angular 15, Webpack, TypeScript, Cypress
- SQL Server / Postgres, Redis
- GitHub, Linear
- Azure / AWS
- Methodology: agile

OUR OFFER

- You'll join a B Corp®, a rapidly growing startup. Your responsibilities will quickly become significant and concrete.
- You'll work in an environment where your professional and personal development is a real priority: everyone has a role to play, and we give you the means to create your own impact.
- You have the opportunity to dedicate 2.5% of your working time to a cause of your choice, and a training plan is provided.
- Our policy includes a balance between on-site and remote work.
- Salary package in line with the Belgian market conditions.
